Inverness Graham Acquires Danville Materials, Inc. – First in a Series of Targeted Dental Technology Acquisitions

Philadelphia, PA, January 6, 2014 – Inverness Graham Investments, a private investment firm based in suburban Philadelphia, is pleased to announce the acquisition of dental technologies leader Danville Materials, Inc. (“Danville”). Headquartered in San Ramon, CA, with an additional manufacturing facility in Anaheim, CA, Danville designs, formulates and manufactures a range of intra-oral air abrasion and microetching equipment as well as consumable dental materials used by dentists globally. Inverness Graham was supported by dental industries veteran, Garrett Sato, who will join as Chairman and CEO. Craig Bruns will continue on as President.

“Over the past two years, we have been proactively targeting the preventative and restorative sectors of the broader dental market,” stated Michael Morrissey, Managing Principal of Inverness Graham. “Danville is an ideal platform given its diversified high quality product offerings, strong financial performance and established channel to market. As with all Inverness targeted platform investments, we will support the team to drive both organic and acquisitive growth,” Morrissey added.

Garrett Sato stated, “Built over several decades of successes through the efforts of the Danville team and Dr. Raymond Bertolotti, a preeminent leader in dentistry, Danville has become a respected player in the dental equipment and materials market and I am excited to be part of this company.”

Craig Bruns, President of Danville also added, “Our team is looking forward to continuing to build upon the Danville legacy of high quality offerings that meet the needs of modern dentists.”

Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.
